SINCE the institution of England v. Australia matches England has won twenty-two out of forty-one test games. Australia claim-log thirteen, while six have been left drawn.

Of the three test matches played by Stoddard's Eleven in Australia during the present tour, the Englishmen have won two and the Australians one (all test matches must be played to a finish). The fourth match was to be commenced at Sydney on the 1st February, and of course, the result is not yet known, while the last match will commence on the 1st March.

WE have received a copy of the twenty-third issue of the 'List of Chinese Lighthouses, Light Vessels, Buoys and Beacons for 1895,' published by the Imperial Maritime Customs. This list is corrected to 1st December 1894. Both before and since 1st December

The following Nota Bene is made 'All concerned are requested to note that Defence Measures along the Coast may suddenly interfere with the exhibition of the Lights and the maintenance of Buoys and Beacons.'

ONE of the largest fires that have occurred there for many years compelled the attention of Singapore on the 31st ult. About two o'clock a fire occurred in a small thatched-roofed shop opposite at Tanjong Rhu almost immediately opposite Messrs Riley Hargreaves' new Shipbuilding Yard, in consequence of cracker-firing, a custom as ancient as it is dangerous amongst Chinese men and Chinese surroundings. Upward of 150 houses were destroyed, and the total damage is estimated at $200,000. Many boats in course of construction in European and Chinese sheds were destroyed. No mention is made of insurance. One Chinaman states that he had a sum of $30,000 in an iron safe which melted.

From this it is proposed to pay a final dividend of $1.75 per share which with the $1.25 paid in July, makes ward the balance of $9,424.02 to next account.

FOOTBALL was the Association game will be sorry to hear that the accident which befell W. R. Moon, the famous international goalkeeper, in a recent match between the Old Westminsters and Old Carthusians, was of a serious character. In a collision with G. O. Smith, the centre forward of the Old Carthusian team, and one of his own back, the popular goalkeeper received a severe blow in the face, which caused him to retire from the game. It has since transpired that the right cheek bone is broken, and permanent injury to the eye is feared. Those who have seen Moon's formidable displays of goalkeeping will join in wishing the Old Westminsters a speedy recovery.
